OPERATING AGREEMENT
PALISADE ROW STORAGE, LLC

Effective 1 July 2017

1. Members and Definitions

1.1 The Company. Palisade Row Storage, LLC (the “Company”) owns and operates six self-storage facilities as one storage business. This Agreement is the complete agreement of its Members on the subjects it addresses.

1.2 Members and Percentage Interests. Florian Oyelaran, Managing Member: 58%; Viktor Kirchner: 12%; Rookwood Partners: 18%; Hollowpine Holdings: 12%. Percentage Interests govern voting, allocations, and distributions unless this Agreement expressly says otherwise.

1.3 “Company” means Palisade Row Storage, LLC, including its business, property, rights, and obligations, but not a Member individually.

1.4 “Sale of the Company” means a direct or indirect transfer of more than 50% of the outstanding Percentage Interests, or a merger or other entity-level transaction in which the holders of a majority of Percentage Interests immediately before the transaction cease to hold a majority of interests in the surviving entity. A disposition by the Company of one or more assets is not expressly included or excluded by this definition.

1.5 “Major Transaction” means (a) a Sale of the Company, (b) a merger, or (c) a sale, lease, exchange, or other disposition of all or substantially all of the Company’s business assets, in one transaction or a related series.

1.6 “Dissent Notice” means a written notice under Section 5.5 stating that the Member dissents from a proposed Major Transaction, identifying the notice received, and reserving the Member’s rights under this Agreement.

2. Management and Approval

2.1 Florian Oyelaran is the Managing Member. He may conduct ordinary-course business and must give notice and obtain the stated approvals for a Major Transaction.

2.2 A Major Transaction requires written approval of the Managing Member and Members holding at least 75% of Percentage Interests. Approval authorizes the Company to pursue and implement the approved Major Transaction, subject to Sections 5.4 and 5.5. This Section does not say that every approved Major Transaction is a Sale of the Company.

3. Transfers and Implementation

3.1 No voluntary transfer of a Membership Interest is effective unless permitted by this Agreement or approved under Section 2.2. A Member shall execute instruments reasonably necessary to carry out a transaction that this Agreement makes binding on that Member.

3.2 This Section alone does not require a Member to approve a Major Transaction or surrender a Membership Interest. Section 5.4 supplies the special rule for a Sale of the Company.

4. Notices

4.1 Notices must be in writing and delivered personally, by nationally recognized overnight courier, or by electronic mail to the last designated address or email. Receipt occurs upon personal delivery, recorded courier delivery, or an email not returned as undeliverable.

4.2 A Major Transaction notice must describe the proposed form, identify whether it is asserted to be a Sale of the Company, and provide material transaction documents then available. A notice under Section 5.4 or 5.5 must state the fourteenth (14th) day after receipt as the response date.

5. Major Transactions; Drag-Along; Dissent

5.1 Following Section 2.2 approval, the Managing Member may deliver a transaction notice. The notice starts the Article 5 response process; it does not characterize a disposition contrary to the transaction documents.

5.2 In a Sale of the Company, each Member shall receive the same form of consideration per Percentage Interest, except for differences required by law or approved in writing by the affected Member.

5.3 An approved Major Transaction involving Company assets may be implemented by the Company. Proceeds remain Company property until applied or distributed under Article 6. An asset disposition does not become a Membership Interest transfer merely because it concerns all or substantially all business assets.

5.4 Drag-Along in a Sale of the Company. If a Sale of the Company has been approved under Section 2.2, each Member shall, on written notice, vote for, consent to, and execute agreements and instruments reasonably necessary to complete that Sale of the Company, including an assignment of that Member’s Membership Interest. Each Member shall respond by the fourteenth (14th) day after receipt. A Member who does not timely execute required documents may be treated, solely to complete that Sale of the Company, as appointing the Managing Member attorney-in-fact to execute them; this remedy does not waive a timely Dissent Notice under Section 5.5 if that Section applies.

5.5 A Member receiving notice of a proposed Major Transaction that is not a Sale of the Company subject to Section 5.4 may deliver a Dissent Notice by the fourteenth (14th) day after receipt. A timely Dissent Notice does not prevent the Company from completing an approved Major Transaction, but preserves the Member’s right to contest whether Section 5.4 applies and to receive any Article 6 distribution. No appraisal formula, purchase price, or guaranteed payment is created for a dissenting Member. Failure to give timely Dissent Notice consents to the proposed Major Transaction but does not supply terms absent from transaction documents.

6. Dissolution, Winding Up, and Distributions

6.1 The Company dissolves upon written approval required by Section 2.2 to dissolve, upon a sale or disposition of all or substantially all Company assets followed by a decision to wind up, or as otherwise required by law. An asset sale does not automatically dissolve the Company before the applicable decision to wind up.

6.2 After dissolution, the Managing Member shall wind up affairs, collect and apply Company assets, discharge or provide for Company liabilities, and make distributions under Section 6.3.

6.3 Cash or other property available after payment or provision for Company liabilities and winding-up expenses shall be distributed to Members in proportion to their Percentage Interests. This Section does not establish an amount or timing of distribution.

7. Construction, Amendment, and Disputes

7.1 This Agreement is read as a whole. A specific provision controls over a general one when both address the same subject.

7.2 Amendment requires a writing approved by the Managing Member and Members holding at least 75% of Percentage Interests; no amendment may disproportionately reduce a Member’s distribution percentage without that Member’s written consent.

7.3 Members shall confer in good faith about disputes. A timely written reservation of rights does not waive a Member’s ability to seek a determination under this Agreement.
